

22 Jason Avenue, South Penrith, NSW 2750

Sold House

Thursday, 12 October 2023

22 Jason Avenue, South Penrith, NSW 2750

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 671 m2

Type: House

Matthew O'Farrell
0415115415

Contact agent

With summer just around the corner this home has all the creature comforts you desire, stepping outside your private oasis awaits an undercover decked entertainment area overlooking a beautiful sparkling saltwater inground pool, setting the scene for countless hours of relaxation and enjoyment just perfect for large family gatherings especially over Christmas. Nestled in the heart of South Penrith, one of Western Sydney's best-kept secrets this sensational 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom recently rendered home is the answer to your accommodation dreams. Step inside, and you'll be immediately impressed with the freshly painted light-filled, modern living space. The generous living area seamlessly flows into the well-appointed kitchen with breakfast bar which overlooks the 2nd living area making this the perfect space for family gatherings and entertaining with multiple split system air conditioning throughout, ceiling fans, helping you to comfy all year round. All this situated on a 671sqm block, this home offers the ideal blend of convenience and extra living. Centrally located, you'll have everything you need at your fingertips walking distance to schools, shops, public transport and not forgetting close access to M4 motorway, including the new up and coming Badgery's Creek airport. This property is packed with additional features that make it truly special including ample side access, giving you room for all your cherished toys. Call now to inspect today.