

22 Martin Street, Thornbury, VIC, 3071

Sold House

Saturday, 17 August 2024

22 Martin Street, Thornbury, VIC, 3071

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Type: House

High St at your doorstep

When location is key you can't go past this three bedroom, freestanding Victorian zoned for Northcote High in a quiet tree-lined street just 100m to High St.

-Featuring high ceilings with deep cornices and rosettes, polished floorboards, solar panels, full insulation and three-phase power, the home is both elegant and efficient

- Indoor/outdoor living with an open living, meals and fully equipped kitchen spilling through French doors to the spacious covered entertaining area with cafe blinds

- Everything you could need to prepare mouth-watering meals is at hand, in the large kitchen boasting timber cabinetry, deep drawers, a pantry and plenty of counter space

- Each of the three bedrooms includes built-in robes, plus two feature charming open fireplaces with timber mantels.

-A gleaming bathroom provides a shower, separate bath, toilet, vanity with semi-recessed basin

-Split system heating/cooling will create a comfortable environment inside, and an alarm system enhances peace of mind

-A remote controlled double roller door accesses a rear right-of-way, and secure parking for two cars is available

Trams, trains, buses, schools, cafes, shops, parks and Northcote Plaza are all within easy walking distance, making this is a very desirable prospect in a top locale.

Hi