Step into this charming 1950s Lindisfarne residence, perched elegantly on an elevated position, showcasing breathtaking views of the river, mountains, bridge, and city skyline. Recently upgraded, this home awaits its new owner with a blend of classic appeal and modern comforts. Inside, the home features impeccably maintained Tasmanian Oak floorboards that exude a captivating high gloss finish, offering both durability and a warm, inviting atmosphere. The front lounge, enhanced by a built-in wood heater, provides a serene space to admire the spectacular vistas that transform from day to night. The eat-in kitchen is both functional and spacious, boasting ample storage and timeless white cabinetry. Three generously sized bedrooms include a master bedroom that shares the lounge's stunning views and is ideally situated at the front of the home. The bathroom is pristine, adorned with white wall tiles and complemented by a contrasting timber floor. It features a rain head shower over the bath and a striking round mirror above the vanity. For added convenience, the toilet is located separately. Outside, the large rear yard unfolds into a secluded oasis of established gardens, offering a tranquil retreat. A rear deck is accessed from the kitchen and is perfect for enjoying leisurely moments or entertaining guests. This Lindisfarne gem seamlessly combines mid-century charm with contemporary updates, creating a residence that is as functional as it is captivating. - Stunning views - Large fully fenced back yard- Upgraded Kitchen and Bathroom- Polished timber flooring- Wood heater plus heat pump- separate toilet
