Behind a blissful garden, timelessly attractive verandah and double brick facade, this renovated single fronted Victorian is immediately impressive with glistening interiors and period beauty. Step over the threshold to a picture-perfect hallway where 3 divine archways draw the eye to the soaring ceilings and then down to the polished timber floors. Beautifully proportioned, the 2 double bedrooms with built-in robes plus a 3rd single bedroom/study are decorated with ceiling roses. A contemporary extension encompasses the open-plan living, dining and elegant kitchen with Blanco appliances, before streaming out to the side covered alfresco, or to the rear where a serene and private courtyard is filled with northern sunshine. Appreciate the comfort of an immaculate and fully tiled bathroom, full laundry and gas ducted heating. Richly vibrant, this location is perfect. Step out to the tram, excellent kindergartens and primary schools, and an amazing selection of Melbourne's finest cuisine along both Sydney Road and Lygon Street.* Stunning and serene single-fronted Victorian* Filled with ornate period features* A contemporary open-plan living, dining and Blanco kitchen* Covered side alfresco zone and sunny north courtyard* Beautifully proportioned bedrooms* Steps to the tram and moments to vibrant eateries
