Charming 3-Bedroom Home in a Quiet, Leafy Street

This Place instantly feels like a home when you walk through the front door. This vintage gem features a family layout with living up one end of the home and bedrooms down the other. A central kitchen with access either direction you are traveling in. Three spacious bedrooms, providing plenty of room for the addition of built in robes if you wish. The central bathroom is adjacent the bedrooms with a separate toilet located in the laundry aids to the functionality of the homes layout. While the home itself is a renovator's delight, allowing you to unleash your creativity and personal touch, it is also ready to move in with the retro vibe.

In the kitchen, you'll find modern bench tops and a built in pantry. The large backyard offers ample space for kids, pets, or your dream garden, and there's even room for shedding, making it ideal for storage or hobbies. A convenient carport ensures easy access and parking.

Nestled in a peaceful location, this home offers the perfect blend of tranquility and potential. Don't miss out—schedule a viewing today!
