Unlock Your New Lifestyle in a Charming Victorian

This stunning two bedroom home boasts a superb central location, just a short stroll from Pin Oak Crescent cafes and dining, Racecourse Road trams, and Newmarket station. Its tranquil environment and convenience to the city and local amenities will impress buyers. Upon entering, you are welcomed by a charming single-fronted Victorian design featuring a tessellated tile front porch and intricate iron lacework. Inside, original Baltic floors, decorative ceilings, and feature pendant lighting create an inviting atmosphere. Feature clerestory windows flood the open plan living and dining space with natural light, while French doors open to a paved entertaining area, complete with a water feature and a gate for potential courtyard car space. The kitchen boasts natural stone countertops, stainless steel appliances along with a pantry. Two bedrooms off the main hallway feature built-in robes, one with a study desk and built-in shelving. A stylish bathroom with clawfoot bathtub, separate toilet, laundry room, and split system A/C complete this charming residence.
