Nestled on a prime 467sqm plot, 24 Skye Point Road offers an extraordinary chance to secure a piece of Coal Point's most sought-after addresses. This two-storey brick abode is a canvas awaiting your creative touch, be it a grand renovation or a brand-new build to capitalise on the rare and expansive Lake Macquarie views. On the upper level, the home unfolds into an open-plan haven, drenched in sunlight and framed by high ceilings. The north-east aspect ensures that the stunning vistas are yours to enjoy from dawn till dusk. The master suite, complete with built-in wardrobes, along with a generous main bathroom, epitomise the thoughtful layout that respects both social and private spaces. The ground floor houses two additional bedrooms, a second living area, and a bathroom, catering to the dynamics of family life. The modern kitchen, with its sleek stainless steel appliances and dishwasher, stands ready to host gatherings big and small. Outdoors, the low-maintenance grounds beckon for serene moments or lively entertainment on the covered patio. The double garage, internal laundry, and abundant storage options add practicality to the charm of this home.
