A designer extension that streams northern light into spacious open plan living brings modern liveability to this three bedroom two bathroom Art Deco home nestled between Pitcher Park and Darebin Parklands. Set on an established garden allotment and offering excellent alfresco entertaining this home promises plenty of space for a growing family, starting with a spacious lounge featuring a built-in bookcase and open fireplace, and culminating in open plan living and dining where panelled windows frame views of the fabulous north-facing rear gardens. A timeless kitchen with a 900mm Ilve range, Bosch dishwasher and WIP flows to an alfresco pavilion offering effortless summer entertaining, with a bordering deck the perfect spot to take in views of the gardens. Spacious bedrooms feature brand new carpets and built-in robes the master with a modern ensuite, there's a skylit family bathroom, separate laundry, ducted heating, split system air-conditioning, ceiling fans and polished hardwood floors throughout. In a prized parkland precinct that enjoys easy access to Fairfield and Ivanhoe Village shopping and cafes, popular schools and is well serviced by public transport, this engaging property with off-street parking for two is the perfect place to call home.
