Nestled within the coastal town of Bridport 24 William Street promises peace and quiet. Step inside and you'll be greeted by amazing views across Andersons Bay, the 'old pier' and all the way to Flinders island from the open plan living and large deck. The living space has lovely Tassie Oak floor boards and large windows taking full advantage of the sun which is exactly what we look for in a place by the sea. You will also find three small yet comfortable bedrooms and a bathroom. The home has reverse cycle air conditioning to keep you comfortable all year round. If you're looking for privacy without a huge block to maintain you are sure to fall in love. Spend your days picking fruit from the mature fruit trees including limes, figs and many more, reading your favourite novel on the deck taking in the peace and quiet of this special hideaway. With visits from numerous wildlife that come from the neighbouring wildflower reserve and walking track this will forever be a place to take in what nature has to offer. Below the house, a second bathroom presents opportunities for customisation, a potential teenage retreat or creative hobby space. So if this coastal haven speaks to you, contact me today and I'll show you around .
