Renovate, detonate or invigorate? the choice is yours, but however you look at it, this is prime block of land of approximately 11 acres will make you pat yourself on the back knowing you have secured a dream block in a dream location. Surrounded by beautiful homes, the old analogy of buying in the best street certainly comes into play here. The perfectly walkable, reasonably flat block boasts fenced paddocks and a small dam which just adds to the scenic landscape in this quiet little community. Infrastructure consists of a brick home which needs TLC, if you would prefer, you could demolish the home and build that dream home you have been waiting for in the perfect location. There are several make shift sheds and a fenced off yard for the dogs. This is a property not to be missed!
