Situated amongst the lovely, quiet neighbourhoods of Weston, just a short walk from local parks and Weston Public School, and conveniently close to the Kurri Kurri CBD and surrounding amenities, 24a Swanson Street is a wonderful property. It offers a pristine interior atmosphere and sweepingly spacious living arrangements for a comfortable family experience. Operating together in one flowing, open plan design, the living, dining and kitchen spaces are your first greeters and set a strong initial impression. A warm colour palette with downlights, natural lighting and timber flooring keeps the atmosphere bright and immaculate, assisted by the spacious floorplan. The kitchen also boasts plenty of slow-close shaker cabinetry, stone-top benches, and an induction cooktop. Bedrooms are quite sizable and well appointed with ceiling fans and built-in wardrobes, whilst the master appreciates its own ensuite. Both bathrooms are sleekly designed, featuring floor-to-ceiling tiling, and a freestanding bathtub to the main. In addition to the sizable front carport, the home also sports a large, detached shed for extra storage, as well as an easily managed, private backyard. - Walking distance to Weston Public School and nearby parks - Close to the Criterion Hotel and local shops; short trip to Kurri Kurri CBD - Pristine interior with a wonderfully bright atmosphere - Spacious land open plan living, dining and kitchen core - Generous bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, ceiling fans; ensuite to main - Large carport and sizable detached storage shed - Brand new home, never lived in
