Welcome to 25 Perspective Drive. Situated in the fast-growing suburb of Alkimos, this near new home combines comfort with modern living, offering a cozy yet contemporary feel throughout. With 31 high course ceilings, downlights and skirting boards throughout the entirety of the property, this home serves as an ideal opportunity for you. The master bedroom is situated to the rear of the property with his & hers robes and a private ensuite. Stone bench top and an oversized shower with separate W/C. 3 further bedrooms with built in robes. To the centre of the property is the spacious open plan kitchen, living & dining area. The kitchen offers ample bench space with a huge breakfast island with power and 900mm appliances. The property has a second bathroom with hobless shower, stone bench top and a bath. A separate W/C for added convenience. A separate laundry with floor to ceiling linen storage. Further benefits of the home:- Solar panels - Oversized 1200mm front door - 600mm x 600mm tiles throughout main living areas - 3 split system aircon units - Double garage with roller door through access - Undercover alfresco - Reticulated front garden - Built in 2021. Located close to parks, schools, daycares centres, shopping amenities, beaches and the new Alkimos train station. With its modern features, convenient location, and versatile appeal, this home will not last long. For more information, please contact James Bosdet on 0422 621 315.
