Nestled at the edge of Deep Creek in the picturesque town of Carisbrook, this delightful mid-century property is waiting for you to make it your own. This two-bedroom home, brimming with potential, invites you to add your personal touch, especially to the street front which is primed for some creative landscaping and tender care. Step inside and you'll be welcomed by a spacious open-plan living area, perfect for entertaining family and friends. The large wood fire in the living room becomes a cozy centerpiece during the chilly months, providing warmth and comfort as you enjoy the stunning views through the expansive windows that overlook the gardens and creek area. The property features two well-sized bedrooms with the potential for a third bedroom through some imaginative renovations. The garage at the front of the house offers ample space for storage or vehicle parking, enhancing the practical appeal of this charming home. Situated just minutes from the popular Carisbrook Primary School, local sports clubs, and shops, this property is ideally located for convenience and community involvement. Additionally, a walking path at the front provides easy access to the serene Deep Creek, perfect for leisurely strolls and nature appreciation. Whether you're looking for a new home or a promising investment opportunity, this property offers both charm and potential. For those considering it as an investment, some effort will be needed to meet the required minimum standards. Don't miss the chance to explore this unique property. Reach out today to arrange a private, pre-booked inspection and discover all that this home has to offer.
