Rare near-level block opportunity in highly sought-after neighbourhood

Nestled in a sought-after family neighbourhood, and part of a collection of both modern and classic residences, this charming freestanding house sits on 515sqm (approx.) of land and represents an amazing opportunity for both renovators and buyers looking to construct their dream home (STCA). Repainted to freshen the home for a new occupant, this 1940's home is filled with natural light from its north-to-front aspect, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere for a new owner.

- Filled with natural light from north-to-front aspect.
- Completely repainted internally for a new owner.
- Timber flooring throughout the home creates a warm and welcoming environment for any family.
- Generously proportioned tiled kitchen complimented by an abundance of storage options.
- Sizeable double garage at the rear of the property that also can serve as a workshop.
- 2-car carport directly next to the home for additional vehicular access.
- Potential for a rebuild for a separate dwelling at the rear of property (STCA).
