

26 Fulham Road, Alphington, Vic 3078

Sold House

Wednesday, 28 February 2024

26 Fulham Road, Alphington, Vic 3078

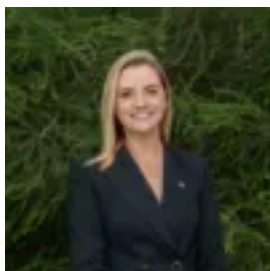

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 3

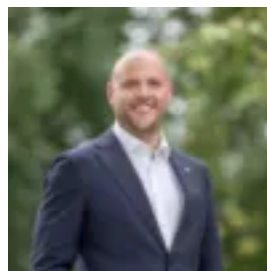

Parkings: 2

Area: 629 m2

Type: House

Paula Beavis
0394039300

Sam Rigopoulos
0394039300

$2,750,000

Showcasing engaging 1920's era architectural form, this stylishly updated four bedroom, two bathroom plus studio residence continues to shine as a modern family home. In a quiet cul-de-sac in blue-ribbon Alphington, this home with multiple living zones set amid native inspired and productive gardens proves the ideal setting for a young family to thrive in. Choose from the romantic formal lounge where custom cabinetry flanks a Jetmaster fireplace, versatile study/music room that would make a welcome additional bedroom or the spacious open plan living domain where lofty clerestory windows and a deep window seat flood the space in northern light. Offering seamless entertaining the covered alfresco area is accessed via stacker sliding doors, collect your own produce from established fruit trees, the raised garden beds, and chicken coop, and cook up a gourmet meal in a modern kitchen with concrete counters featuring a 900mm Blanco range and Bosch dishwasher. With a self-contained studio including a kitchenette and stylish bathroom ideal as a teenage or guest retreat, this fabulous home with its leadlight windows, picture rails, original lighting and panelled doors showcases fabulous family charm, while heating/cooling, carport plus off-street parking, double glazing, water tanks, solar panels and gardens on the nature strip contribute to sustainability and community connection.