The initial appeal –

A character home in Original Laurimar, with all the warm and wholesome character features we love to see: the picket fence, 10ft ceilings, ceiling roses, feature cornices, period style bathroom, clawfoot bath, gas log fireplace and original Karri timber floorboards.

The main attraction –

This home is just meant for long arvos, late nights and slow Sundays with friends and fam.

The oversized alfresco has a built-in barbie connected to natural gas, and views through to Kinglake Ranges. The solar heated pool has surrounding sun decking, and downstairs has a built-in bar, soundproof theatre room and a studio / gym / workshop.

Your journey here starts this Saturday.
