Character & charm in a prestige position

A truly unique residence with a charm & character all of its own, this highly desirable property enjoys a prestige position boasting water views over Port Hacking across to the National Park right throughout home. Set amongst private gardens and featuring an amazing master suite with its signature claw foot tub, the warm & inviting atmosphere of this luxury abode creates a special place that you will never tire of coming home to.

- Inviting open plan living spaces that are bathed in natural light run right through the home
- A sumptuous master bedroom with a striking en-suite bathroom that features a claw foot bath with views across the river
- Timelessly styled kitchen with quality Smeg appliances, six station gas cooktop & stone finishes
- Home office | fifth bedroom option on the ground floor
- Sweeping polished timber flooring, pressed metal feature panelling & a cosy gas fireplace
- Building highlights include solid full brick construction, high ceilings, lux bespoke cabinetry & wide ornate cornices
- Fully ducted reverse cycle air conditioning
- Double garaging with extensive sub floor storage
- Mature formal hedging frames the sunny & secure rear garden with a summer alfresco deck
- A short 250 metre stroll to Lilli Pilli primary school with the local parks & village shops also close by
- Leafy, prestige position in a most sought after street with tranquil water views over Port Hacking
