If you're in the market for an investment property or low maintenance home but don't want the fees or drama of strata titled properties then 269 Hetherington Street is for you. Neatly presented both inside and out this single bedroom home comprises of gas heating and ducted evaporative cooling, secure backyard with shedding and great deck to enjoy the morning sun. With an estimated rental return of $270 weekly and no work needed on the property this could be an excellent start to your portfolio or great addition due to its set and forget condition. For those downsizers that still want some space and freedom of owning your own property the backyard has adequate space for any additions you may desire (STCA).
