This is a terrific opportunity to enter the market, whether you are a first home buyer or first time investor, this home is here for you ready to start your property journey. The location couldn't be more convenient, village shopping, restaurants, take away shops, and medical is right here, so is public transport, and yet you are only a few minutes level walk to the waterfront at Salamander Bay. The home consists of a generous air conditioned lounge and dining room, functional kitchen with gas hotplates, three bedrooms, family bathroom, additional WC in the laundry and a double garage with an auto door. The yard is level and low maintenance and a garden shed takes care of you gardening tools. With these great attributes, an inspection is highly recommended as homes with a combination of this location with these conveniences are rare indeed.
