

27 Blackall Terrace, Nambour, Qld 4560

House For Sale

Tuesday, 25 June 2024

27 Blackall Terrace, Nambour, Qld 4560

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 840 m2

Type: House

Michelle Maxwell

OFFERS OVER $885,000

Showcasing period charm with a modern twist this home features five bedrooms, two bathrooms and a powder room. The high ceilings and cool calming colour scheme is the canvas for you to create your new home in a central location of Nambour. Your heart will feel warm and content from the moment you step inside this old world charm family home. With an abundance of period features this home has been restored showcasing floating timber floors, led light features and natural light which streams through the bay window at the front of the property. The home features a large living area which captures views of rolling hills and is framed by the splash of colour from the large jacaranda trees. Entertaining will be an absolute joy in the open plan kitchen stylishly designed with stone bench tops, dishwasher and plenty of storage. If you are looking for a family home with space, natural light and the potential to extend then this is the one for you. Other features are Split system cooling in living area 3 toilets* Ceiling fans throughout* Fully insulated walls and ceilings throughout* Large rear yard with plenty of potential.* Close to shops/ schools / hospital and so much more.* Under house storage*Currently tenanted until 27th of December * Dishwasher* Land size 840sqm look forward to meeting you at the next open for inspection.