Guide $680,000 - $710,000

Nestled within the bustling CBD, on a highly desirable street, stands this charmingly renovated home filled with character. This 1920s-era home is gracefully situated on a manageable 481sqm parcel of land, featuring convenient side access to a generously sized shed. Positioned for a vibrant lifestyle, this home is a mere stone's throw from both the train station and the lively Keppel Street, famed for its eclectic mix of cafes and shops. Don't let this opportunity slip away!

What we love about the property:

- Impressive three-bay shed with automatic doors
- Updated kitchen with electric cooking and dishwasher
- Open-plan living and dining area with a gas fireplace
- Large separate family room with new carpeting
- Three generously proportioned bedrooms (two with open wood fireplaces)
- Neatly maintained family bathroom and separate toilet
- High ceilings and timber floorboards
- Cozy undercover outdoor entertaining area

If you desire vintage charm complemented by modern renovations and minimal upkeep, this could be the perfect match you've been seeking. Contact our team to book your inspection today!
