Indulge in the epitome of luxury at 27 Hemley Circuit, Maiden Gully, nestled in the prestigious Westbury Estate. Just a short drive from Bendigo's vibrant centre, this exquisite executive home, crafted by renowned builder Adrian Bassett, promises an unparalleled resort-style living experience. Situated on a generous 801m² block, this residence boasts a seamless blend of earth tones and textures that exude sophistication and style. The expansive floor plan offers multiple living spaces designed for both relaxation and entertainment, featuring both an upstairs and downstairs master suite, adding to the flexibility of this home. The upstairs master suite offers a generous walk-in robe plus ensuite with oversized shower and includes a private study, providing a serene retreat from the rest of the home. The downstairs master incorporates both an ensuite and generous walk-in robe, adjoining the living area offering choice for flexible living. In all there are four spacious bedrooms and three elegantly appointed bathrooms – ideal for large or combined families and for those needing extra guest accommodation. The lounge room, rumpus room and third living space offer versatile options for family gatherings or quieter moments. Relax in the expansive open-plan family area, warmed by a feature wood fire place – perfect for cool winter nights. The heart of this home is the state-of-the-art Chefs kitchen. Outfitted with high-end appliances, it features a large island bench, a butler's pantry, and seamless cabinetry offering ample storage options. From here, step outside to the stunning & expansive alfresco area designed for those who love to entertain. Featuring a generous undercover area complete with a fully-appointed outdoor kitchen – overlooking a dream inground pool that's sure to be your destination of choice during Bendigo's hot summers. Additional features include 3-phase electricity connection which powers a commercial grade ducted heating and cooling unit, a 10kw solar system for sustainability, and a spacious garage to comfortably fit two cars as well as additional storage. This home offers the complete lifestyle dream with the perfect blend of sophistication, style and convenience.
