Explore the blend of comfort and potential at 27 Holmes Road, Ellendale. This delightful three-bedroom family home is situated on a vast approximately 34-acre property, providing an array of opportunities for various lifestyles and ventures. The majority of the land is pasture, making it perfect for a hobby farm or agricultural activities. The current owners have established commercial camp sites. Designed with family living in focus, the residence boasts spacious and welcoming rooms that create a cozy atmosphere. Alongside the home, you'll find a generous workshop and carport, catering to handyman or mechanic enthusiasts. The property also includes a sauna, chicken coop, and a hot house, catering to a range of hobbies and interests. A standout feature of this property is the boundary creek, offering peaceful views and a serene ambiance. Whether you aspire to lead a rural lifestyle, engage in small-scale agricultural pursuits, or continue the current commercial camping venture, 27 Holmes Road provides endless possibilities.
