Introducing 27 Watson Street, the epitome of luxury, perched high on a generous 776m² of prime beachfront land. This exquisite brand-new masterpiece, brought to life by the distinguished multi award winning Master Builders and HIA Nick Hayes Construction team, ingeniously blends colonial design elements and coastal aesthetics to create an all-embracing way of life. This luxurious property is designed to take full advantage of the expansive ocean, surf and mountain views from almost every space, whilst maintaining privacy and coastal comfort. The extraordinary kitchen, outfitted with European appliances and stone benchtops, is a culinary enthusiast's dream. A large walk-in pantry, open dining and living complete with built in fireplace all overlooking the stunning Pacific Ocean. A dedicated office offers a quiet workspace, a separate gym or media room occupies the ground floor. There are four spacious bedrooms and four luxurious bathrooms, including three ensuites. The opulent master suite features wrap around balconies, sitting room and stunning ensuite adorned with stone benchtops. Do not miss this once in a lifetime opportunity, for more information call Richard or Loren.
