A truly rare offering, this immaculately renovated character home is a stunning modern interpretation of a traditional 1940's Queenslander home. The residence greets you with a magnificent traditional facade and established front gardens. Unique and carefully selected finishes, cascades of natural light, five palatial bedrooms, 2.5 bathrooms and a sparkling pool are just a few of the many highlights of this home. Stepping inside, you are greeted by polished timber floors, high ceilings, decorative breezeways and a sense of grandeur. The lower level is comprised of a home office, guest bedroom, charming main bathroom and excellent living space. The opulent kitchen displays a combined island bench and breakfast bar, quality appliances, wine fridge and a servery window to the outdoor patio. Living space is ample in the open concept lounge/dining zone and the versatile media room. The inviting open-plan interiors seamlessly opens to a covered patio, swimming pool, and a private backyard making entertaining occasions a delight. On the upper level, three sizeable bedrooms are serviced by a sleek bathroom. The master retreat is equipped with a huge walk-in robe, bathroom access and a rear breezy balcony to enjoy relaxed mornings. Other notable details include ducted air-conditioning, solar power, plenty of under-house storage and ceiling fans.
