Situated in a highly sought after seaside location, this property will impress buyers looking for both a lifestyle and a place to call home. With pristine beaches and the iconic Urangan Pier only a very short stroll away, you have easy access to boating, swimming and fishing in the calm safe waters of the Great Sandy Straits. The home itself sits on an impressive 855m² block which offers great side access to the rear yard where there is plenty of room to value add to the property with a pool or sheds. Catch the breezes from this high set home which boasts Fraser Island hard floors, kitchen and family bathroom in good condition. Underneath there is ample room for the cars and there is a 7 metre long shed with high clearance doors and drive through access to the rear yard. There are plenty of entertainment options with the Boat Club, shops, wine bars, Woolworths, Botanic Gardens and Marina all nearby. This property has become surplus to the current owners requirements and has been extremely well priced for this popular location. Be quick for this one.
