All your needs will be met inside this well presented four bedroom luxurious home. Feel welcomed as soon as you step inside by the large tiled entrance, private downstairs carpeted study, master bedroom with mirrored walk in robes, which lead to the functional ensuite. Laundry with separate toilet, plenty of bench and cupboard space, enormous living and dining area which soaks up all the morning sun, open plan modern kitchen with stainless steel appliances including dishwasher and stone bench tops. Upstairs you will find two large bedrooms both with mirrored built in robes, additional study room, second living space ideal for use as the kids lounge room, large main bathroom with separate shower, large bath, twin basins to stop the teenagers from squabbling over space in the morning and a practical sized balcony with amazing views of the estate. Outside, is perfect for entertaining with its low maintenance paved landscaped garden, external roller door from the garage, large fold out clothes which is tucked away down the side walk way of the property and away from any guests. With ducted heating, air conditioning and vacuum, alarm with remote and video unit to front door, plus High Point Shopping Centre just down the road, this property ticks all the boxes for comfortable living!
