Timeless Queenslander in the Heart of Cooroy

Step into a world where classic charm and character abound with this traditional Cooroy Queenslander, proudly positioned on a spacious 1,012sqm lot. From the moment you arrive, the enchanting street appeal sets the tone for what's to come inside this much-loved property.

Inside, you'll discover a home that retains its original features and timeless appeal. The soaring ceilings and intricate timber fretwork offer a glimpse into the craftsmanship of a bygone era, while the open-plan design and elevated views create a warm and inviting atmosphere.

This home is perfect for families seeking space and potential. With four generous bedrooms, additional study, central bathroom, and a large living area, there's plenty of room for everyone to make themselves at home. The kitchen, though not modern, offers ample space and the opportunity to be updated to suit your family's needs. The expansive covered deck is perfect for hosting family and friends while the kids enjoy the freedom of the front yard. Beneath the current flooring, original timber floorboards are ready to be revealed and restored to their former glory..

Practicality is at the forefront with a separate laundry, storage space, and a single garage at the rear, fully utilizing the dual-street frontage, with vehicle access from the rear of the property.

Living here means enjoying the convenience of being in a family-friendly pocket of Cooroy, just minutes from local amenities and only 15 minutes to Noosa. Take a short stroll to Copperhead Brewery or Your Mates Bowls Pub, and enjoy the nearby shops, cafes, restaurants, and transport links.
