Nestled in the coveted locale of Taroona, this lovely property offers a lifestyle of peaceful serenity. With its charming ambiance, delightful features, and captivating water views, this home is a sanctuary of comfort and style. Filled with natural light and boasting stunning water views, this family home welcomes you with open arms. The spacious open plan living area is both inviting and cosy, offering a comfortable retreat with ever-changing scenery. Polished timber floors complement, and an updated kitchen adds convenience to daily living. With three bedrooms, this home provides ample accommodation for individuals, couples, or families. Additionally, a separate study offers versatility, serving as a potential fourth bedroom if needed. The beautifully renovated family bathroom, complete with a separate toilet, adds a touch of luxury to everyday routines. Downstairs, a double garage with generous storage space awaits, providing ample room for vehicles and belongings. This area also offers the potential for a workshop or hobby room, catering to various needs and interests. Situated close to excellent Taroona High School and Primary School, close to Sandy Bay shopping precinct and only a short drive to Hobart CBD. Don't miss the opportunity to call this beautiful new home your own.
