A Stunning Renovation to Match a Premium Location

Offering an elevated position upon a 620 sqm corner parcel, this gorgeous home has all the hallmarks of a fine family retreat within one of our region's most esteemed suburbs.

With a stunning renovation under its belt and beautiful spaces to entertain, its showroom style and lush green views are waiting for your signature stamp. This 1950s brick veneer home is framed by beautifully groomed grounds, the interior boasts three generous bedrooms, open-concept living, a five-star bathroom and a kitchen with elegant stone benchtops. A curved front verandah gives the home a hint of art-deco class, and a gas fireplace, on-trend fittings, rooftop solar and a custom-built alfresco area lift this home into superstar status.

Incredibly close to Brunner Road shops, Westfield Kotara and some top-performing schools, if you're on the lookout for a renovated beauty within a tightly-held suburb, look no further than 29 Montrose Avenue, Adamstown Heights.

- Established private backyard, sun-soaked front yard with low maintenance gardens
- Faultlessly renovated home, elevated from the street and boasting an automatic garage and substantial under-house storage
- Three generous bedrooms with ample storage, double underlay wool blend carpets with oversized windows
- Introduced via a stunning curved verandah where afternoon drinks will be a must
- Classic layout anchored by a hotel-worthy bathroom with bath
- Thoroughly modern kitchen finished with smooth stone surfaces and contemporary appliances
- Gorgeous gas-flame fireplace, window sheers, 2.7m high ceilings, plantation shutters, polished floorboards, carpeted bedrooms, built-in robes, and split-system AC
- Large yard framed by mature gardens and an open alfresco area, creating a magical environment for outdoor entertaining
- Surrounded by excellent schools, 10 minutes to Newcastle's CBD and city beaches
- 19 6.66kw solar pannels, and instant natural gas
