SPACIOUS VILLA WITH HISTORIC CHARM

Auction Location: On Site (USP)

Welcome to this enchanting early 1900s villa in heart of Cheltenham, where history meets comfort. Set on an allotment of some 950m² with a frontage of over 24 mtrs, this stone-front, double brick home features a captivating facade with traditional red brick detailing, inviting you into a world of classic charm.

Upon entering, you are greeted by detailed ceilings and decorative centre hallway arch. This leads you to a cozy living room, bathed in natural light, perfect for relaxing evenings at home. The kitchen, adjacent to the living area, blends historical ambiance with modern functionality, equipped to cater to contemporary lifestyles while retaining its period charm.

The home comprises of lofty ceilings, timber floors, ornate skirting boards, three spacious bedrooms, each offering privacy and comfort. The bathroom features beautiful Terrazzo flooring, separate shower & bath tub.

Outside, the property boasts well-manicured gardens and multiple verandas, ideal for outdoor entertainment. A garage and workshop provide ample space for hobbies and storage, and the charming covered BBQ area, perfect for the outdoor cook up, the chook house is ideal if you want to raise chickens and enjoy fresh eggs for the family.

A rare gem indeed, whether your looking for the perfect home to make your own by adding your own personal touches, renovation project or to redevelop this home ticks all the boxes.

Not just a home but a slice of history, perfectly positioned to offer tranquility and convenience with easy access to local amenities and schools. Positioned adjacent to trainline offers convenient public transport. 29 Tewkesbury Street is an exceptional opportunity to own a piece of Cheltenham's heritage, offering a blend of comfort, character, and modern amenities.
