

290 Moomowroong Road, Carlisle River, VIC, 3239

Sold House

Wednesday, 18 September 2024

290 Moomowroong Road, Carlisle River, VIC, 3239

Bedrooms: 1

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Type: House

A picturesque escape to Carlisle River

This stunning property in Carlisle River truly has to be seen to be believed. A visual feast of scenic vistas awaits you at 290 Moomowroong Road and if you're looking to reset with the perfect sea change, or are searching for a place to escape to on the weekends or holidays then you won't need to look any further than this.

Sitting on approximately 6 acres of beautifully uninterrupted bushland, the property features a charming, off grid, mud brick residence with all the creature comforts one could ask for in a home. Wood fire heating keeps both levels of the home wonderfully comfortable and the stylish and functional kitchen and bathroom make for ease of use. Upstairs the full benefit of the surrounds come into play with the bedroom and sitting area gazing over the spectacular views afforded by this beautiful region.

Outside the property boasts a standalone bungalow set uphill from the main residence, an excellent place for a kids hideaway or a charming Airbnb opportunity for an interested investor. Ample shedding for machinery and firewood will ensure that outdoor storage is still safe from the elements, and a delightful outdoor fire pit and picnic area gives you a dedicated space to enjoy the picturesque views. This property offers vast amount of local fauna and flora Guaranteed to entice all walks of life.

Three 22,500Lt water tanks and dedicated fire fighting equipment as well as two Honda inverter generators currently keep the property safe and well serviced, and there are multiple other water tanks around the property to service gardens.

This unique property truly is one of a kind and we don't expect it to be around for long so contact us today to register your interest for this once in a lifetime opportunity.