Quietly positioned in a quiet location, 3 Adam Court will tick the boxes should you be in the market for a home on a big block and looking for a huge shed. The home itself comprises of 3 bedrooms in the main house with master entailing renovated ensuite and built in robe. The remaining two bedrooms provide ample floor space and are positioned nicely around the renovated main bathroom and toilet. The kitchen and dining combine in the same area and a large living space rounds out the house. Outside you are secure behind a high fence and sliding gate. All of the 727sqm is completely usable with a huge driveway perfect for parking that lead you to the 13x10m shed. A fourth bedroom inside the shed has a split system providing comfort year round. Once of the largest sheds on the current market available in this price tag will have you fighting over how much stuff you can store in there. A large pergola is ideal for entertaining and plenty of grass for the kids and pets to enjoy finish off this property. Located a short distance from St Patrick's primary school, Pakenham High and then you are also within a short distance back to Main Street where you have all the amenities you could need. If you're looking for the ideal start then look no further, this one will not last long and an inspection is a must. Call Stuart or Jazmin today for further information or to arrange an inspection.
