Everything Old is New Again!

This home has been painstakingly restored to an exceptional standard and is now proudly available to the market.

From the first impression of the spacious entry foyer, the home commands attention to the detailed features and stunning sympathetic, historic and bespoke updates, that make this beautiful property a unique, family home.

Situated on the high set, Bissett Street, East Kempsey, the home has street appeal, an ideal location and the block size is generous, inviting family living.

Federation features, cornices, fretwork, sash windows and polished floorboards all highlight the beautiful ambiance that is rare to find in modern homes, this is the best a heritage home can offer and blends the charm of old and modern convenience.

With four to five bedrooms, two bathrooms, generous living sectors, an updated kitchen and multiple alfresco options, this home has been transformed into a designer family abode.

Recently renovated the home has a new zinc allum roof and gutters, new side gates and fencing, has been painted both internally and externally, has new plumbing and drainage, new kitchen appliances, a new bathroom, new light fittings, curtains, blinds and air-conditioning and a Bosch security system.

With a scenic rural vista from the front decks, this house is move in ready with nothing to do!

Zoned for the popular East Kempsey public school and with excellent private and public school options available, a short stroll to the Kempsey CBD, the renowned beaches of Crescent Head, Hat Head and South West Rocks close by, and only a short commute to Port Macquarie, this home, in a desirable suburb is not to be missed!
