Located in a quiet residential street, this sunlit home provides all the comforts of modern living. It features two light filled living areas with a well-appointed kitchen and ducted heating to keep you comfortable through the cooler months. Boasting four bedrooms, two with dual access to the second bathroom and all equipped with built-in robes. Extensive storage is also provided throughout the home with multiple storage cupboards. The main bathroom is styled in a modern colour palette with separate bath to shower and a separate toilet. The low maintenance backyard and shed is via the double gates on the northern boundary. Backyard access with double garage and carport for storage. Situated close to primary and secondary schools and within walking distance to Bluewater Fitness centre, library and swimming pool this home is certainly worth a look.
