This quality-built home features a sturdy steel frame with external cladding and boasts four generously sized bedrooms. The master suite is a private sanctuary, complete with a spacious walk-in robe, luxurious ensuite, and direct access to the back patio and garden. The other three bedrooms are situated off a second lounge room, perfect for a kids' retreat or gaming space, and all come with built-in robes and ceiling fans.

The home's neutral color scheme and high-end finishes, including stone benchtops and push-to-open cabinetry in the bathrooms, create a modern and cohesive aesthetic. The open-plan main living and dining area is spacious and filled with natural light, thanks to large sliding windows and doors that seamlessly connect the indoors with the private rear patio and flat, low-maintenance yard.
