A Treasured Family Home Delivered in Pristine Condition

Every now and then a tightly-held family home comes to the market and instantly grabs your attention because you can feel the love and treasured memories it holds within its walls, and 3 Invermore Close, Wallsend does just that. Kept in mint condition over its lifetime both indoors and out and recently refreshed, one step over the threshold reveals a home of warmth and welcome, somewhere you can put down roots for many years to come.

Boasting a modern footprint of four bedrooms, two bathrooms and a double garage, it's the sequence of living areas that will leave you smitten. From the formal lounge and dining rooms to a casual meals area and a charming family room, second living room and substantial outdoor entertaining area that has family celebrations written all over it, there is space in spades throughout this sanctuary.

If you want more you'll find it in the location. Resting on a slightly elevated block to catch a sweeping view, this home resides within a quiet and tight-knit cul-de-sac where neighbours become friends and lifestyle essentials such as schools, childcare, shopping and transport can be accessed in minutes.
