We proud to present to market, 3 Jones Street, Boonah. A rare gem with elevated scenic views situated in a quiet neighborhood, a stones throw from the desirable Boonah town center. Built on over 800m², this beautifully renovated property is a must see. Walking distance from schools, parks, cafes and historic hotels, all while maintaining the quaint feel of a timeless home, this property has it all. A thorough renovation has recently been completed leaving no stone unturned. The open plan kitchen with stone bench tops and a new bathroom are just the start. The whole house has been rewired, replumbed and freshly painted inside and out. The living area is airconditioned, along with the master bedroom. Stunning newly polished hardwood floors, and a cozy carpeted sunroom out the back. Top this with mountain views out the living area windows, to complete the timeless modern country feel. The fully fenced back yard has side access and ample room for a shed. Entertainers are covered with mountain views from the firepit also. If you are looking to call one of the south east corners most desirable townships home, contact me to arrange an inspection of 3 Jones Street today.
