Happy New Year Living Here...

Upon entrance of this surprisingly spacious charmer, you will love the immediate air of relaxed warmth and light it showcases throughout its practical layout which also easily can accommodate today's demands of a designated home work space.

A traditional long entrance hallway separates the two double bedrooms away from everyday living. A non-pretentious kitchen easily connects to two flexible living/dining or optional workspaces. There is also a neat bathroom retreat with a bath, separate laundry and an easy to maintain sunny garden that allows for some green thumbing.

For the lovers of lifestyle, then this location will lift up your spirits as it puts you right in the zone for shopping at the good Coles at La Plaza, All Nations Parklands and only being a moment's walk away from the hipster lifestyle on High Street.
