Classic Poolside Family Entertaining

First time offered in 44 years, this lovingly maintained three bedroom three bathroom 60s brick home is single level with the classic bones your family loves. Hallmarked by its solar heated pool where the kids can splash around while you lounge around on the brick paved surrounds, this cherished surprise enjoys a wide entry foyer with stippled glass doors to the traditional lounge and dining room, a modern classic kitchen overlooking the light filled family area, three good size bedrooms including the super spacious main bedroom with walk in robe and ensuite (all with wardrobes), a family bathroom with separate toilet, a compact third bathroom for the swimmers and a classic laundry. A north facing rear patio, with barbeque overlooks a fruitful lemon tree and lawn beyond. On 534 sqm approx. with an oversized frontage, this appealing haven has all the family qualities including polished floorboards, ducted heating, split system air conditioning, ample storage, a garage/workshop and a tandem carport. In a family favourite position, close to Humble Creatures café, Centenary Park, the Brady Road kindergarten and the schooling prominence of East Bentleigh Primary School, St Peter's Primary School, St Bede's College and Bentleigh Secondary College, with nearby buses linking to Centre Road and Chadstone.
