In need of some TLC but offering a prime location just a short walk from local Emu Parade shops, and a quick drive to Broadmeadows central, this original brick home on a brilliant allotment of approximately 610m², with a frontage of over 15m, offers potential plus, whether you might be considering a renovation, rebuild or redevelopment of the site (STCA).The home in position comprises of three bedrooms (two with robes), a central bathroom, internal laundry, spacious front lounge and kitchen with meals area. There's an extended 6 car garage at the rear of the property, sitting beside the huge backyard, and there's a very large front yard as well. Bus stops are a few minutes' walk from home, and Broadmeadows station is a 8 minute walk. Major arterials are within easy reach with the CBD just 16km away. Extensive reserves and walking trails are all nearby, and the conveniences of both Glenroy and Broadmeadows shopping, eateries and services are close at hand, with a selection of schools and tertiary education within the surrounding area.
