The property is located on a fantastic block of land, offering ocean views and being only a minutes walk to Swimming Creek Beach. Also only a short distance to local sporting fields, skate park, clubs and the main CBD area of Nambucca Heads. The property is a generous two-bedroom home, with a large sunroom that overlooks the water. Entering the home takes you directly into the L shaped sunroom that has tripple slider windows on all external walls, offering fantastic views and breeze. Entering the home from the sunroom takes you to the living area which is also large in size. Good sized kitchen with ample bench space. The living area, hallway and bedrooms are carpeted throughout and there is a modern reverse cycle air conditioner located in this space. The hallway leads to the two large bedrooms that both offer built in wardrobes. The bathroom is very functional with bathtub and separate toilet. Large garage located underneath the property with heaps of room and a handy workbench. No pets. Applications via 1Form not accepted. Rental applications are available for collection in office or via the following
