Timeless brick home that encapsulates modern style and comfort internally but retains the classic federation style externally. Five bedrooms - all with built ins. The main bedroom is quite a big space and has an enviable walk-in robe and ensuite. The wide central hallway leads you through the home, to the living areas at the rear. There is an open plan dining/lounge and kitchen area that would be a welcome family space for meals and living. The separate family room provides options for the larger family. The large garage also has internal access. Ducted air conditioning provide year round comfort. Solar panels to assist with energy costs. Everything in this home is of a quality that is sure to impress. The rear outdoor living area is undercover and there is a shed which can provide ample storage. Set on 803m² block. Rear lane access also. This home will be sure to delight you. For more information or to organise an inspection, call 63741000
