Step into this inviting 1900s cottage located in the heart of Greenock that's highly sought-after and tightly held radiating character and warmth. This beautiful home effortlessly combines historic charm with modern comforts, making it a true gem in the heart of wine country. Step inside to find original features that exude character, from the high ceilings and polished wooden floors to an inviting outdoor area. Imagine living just a short walk from five distinguished cellar doors—Murray St Vineyards, Kalleske, Ballycroft, Schalter, and Reillys—where you can immerse yourself in the local wine culture. Greenock's vibrant community offers delightful dining options, with the Greenock Tavern and the charming El Estanco restaurant within easy strolling distance. Beer enthusiasts will love the nearby Greenock Brewery, a perfect spot for a relaxed afternoon. For a truly extraordinary experience, the award-winning Seppeltsfield Estate and Hentley Farm are only a five-minute drive away. Adding to the appeal, the luxurious Oscar, a six-star hotel and day spa at Seppeltsfield, is underway, promising to elevate the area's allure. This lovely property, whether envisioned as a cozy family home or a delightful B&B, offers countless opportunities. Features: * 4 grand size bedrooms. * Bedroom 2 with split system air conditioner. * Kitchen complete with electric stove top, breakfast bar, ample cabinetry and bench space. * Split system, ceiling fan and combustion heater in the main living. * Second living/formal lounge area. * Main bathroom with claw bath. * High ceilings throughout. * Outdoor undercover entertaining area. * Freshly painted and carpeted throughout. * Quality window treatments. * Cellar located in the kitchen. * 2.24 KW solar system. * Inground swimming pool and storage shed. * Rain water tank. * Large shed with concrete flooring and power. * Side access to the low maintenance rear yard.
