A huge opportunity has presented with this outstanding property in ever popular old Highton, only a short stroll to Porter Avenue shops and perched on a generous allotment of 585sqm (approx.) of land. The home is in perfect condition from the neat gardens through to the light filled interiors and the main bathroom has been fully updated for the next lucky purchaser to enjoy. All three bedrooms boast built-in robes, the main living is bathed in northerly light and the adjoining kitchen is neat and tidy but offers the opportunity for further updates to add value. The home is perfect for the young family looking for that enviable Highton location, the astute investor or someone looking to update and add value in this sought after location of Highton. The home is flanked by some of the best primary and secondary schools, sporting facilities, and is ideally located to all the great shopping and dining options. - Beautifully presented and on generous allotment of 585sqm (approx.) of land - Newly renovated bathroom - Large north-facing living room - Heating and cooling - Established gardens - Ideally located to all amenities
