Situated on a generous 758sqm allotment, 32 Ross St is a charming, older-style home is ripe with potential. A great find for first home buyers or couples looking to put their personal stamp on a property. This three-bedroom abode invites you with its high ceilings and is warmed by ducted natural gas heating, complemented by a cosy gas log fire in the family room-perfect for those crisp winter evenings. Bathed in sunlight, the north-facing sunroom opens onto a back deck that overlooks the lovingly maintained garden, offering a serene spot to unwind. Additional to the property is the separate bungalow with a toilet; it's an ideal space for a studio or hobby room, providing a private retreat. Practical needs are also met with a powered single garage and handy garden shed. Set in a tranquil location, this delightful residence is comfortable as is, yet holds great promise for those eager to renovate.
