Nestled at the tranquil end of a secluded no-through road, 32 Young Street in the picturesque town of Bombala awaits your discovery. This expansive four-bedroom house is an idyllic family retreat set against a serene natural backdrop, with the property's 820 square-metre land size affording ample space for both relaxation and recreation. The residence boasts a brick and tile construction, which harmoniously blends with its environment and ensures a timeless aesthetic. Each of the king-sized bedrooms offers a generous and comfortable living space, with the main bedroom further enhanced by a private ensuite for added convenience. Built-in wardrobes and gas heating throughout ensure that this home caters to your family's every need. The capacious double garage provides ample storage, alongside additional garden sheds in the established gardens. The wide front veranda invites you to savour panoramic views over Bombala, offering the perfect setting for quiet reflection or lively family gatherings. The double garage not only secures your vehicles but also allows for extra storage space underneath the home. The rear of the property, adjoining vacant land, ensures a sense of openness and privacy that is so often sought but seldom found. 32 Young Street represents a perfect blend of comfort, space, and tranquillity. It's more than a house; it's a place to call home.
