Contact: 0481 754 630 Nestled within the prestigious enclave of Oyster Cove, this architecturally designed executive residence spans a generous 689m², offering an expansive layout ideal for accommodating various lifestyles. Situated in a serene Cul de Sac, the residence boasts a coveted north-facing aspect, providing breathtaking and unbeatable water views across its vast 1399m² fan-shaped plot, featuring an impressive 68 meters of rare point position waterfrontage. Upon arrival, guests are welcomed through tall timber doors into a grand entry foyer adorned with double-height ceilings and an exquisite chandelier. The ground level is anchored by a superbly appointed kitchen, complete with Miele and Bosch appliances, nature stone countertops, and a butler's pantry, seamlessly connecting to the outdoors through bifold windows overlooking the water vistas. The extensive open-plan living and dining areas effortlessly flow onto a covered patio and deck, offering a picturesque backdrop for entertaining. The oversized waterfront master suite, complemented by a generous ensuite and walk-in robe, epitomizes luxury living. Additionally, the ground level features a media lounge, sixth bedroom or office, laundry, bathroom, a convenient four-person lift, and a large drive-thru double garage. Ascending to the first level, another expansive living area awaits, four bedrooms, and one bathroom. Special features include solar power, a 4-person lift, underground water tank, private jetty, and 24-hour security, ensuring peace of mind and a high degree of privacy. With huge potential, this gracious residence exudes an executive lifestyle ambience, perfectly suited for discerning homeowners. Oyster Cove, a boutique gated estate, offers secure living with direct access to Saltwater Creek, the Broadwater, and the Pacific Ocean. Residents enjoy proximity to renowned golf courses, marinas, and a plethora of recreational activities, making it an idyllic retreat for water enthusiasts. Boating, fishing, and crabbing opportunities abound, enhancing the allure of this magnificent waterfront oasis.
