Wonderful family home in the sought after suburb Blair Athol. This home features a free flowing open plan layout which incorporates the spacious living and dining area. Fitted with plenty of cupboards and overheads the kitchen is well equipped with ample bench space, breakfast bar, double sink and stylish stainless steel appliances including an electric cooktop with rangehood & oven. Quality timber flooring flows throughout the entire house with the living, kitchen & dining rooms boasting a light neutral colour scheme. A glass sliding door opens to a private low maintenance rear yard which includes good neighbour Colorbond fencing all around. There is a double secure carport with auto panel lift door and driveway at the front that provides convenient off-street parking for another two cars. All bedrooms have beautiful polished timber floorboards and include quality window furnishings plus a full-size bathroom which includes a bathtub. There is also a separate toilet. You will definitely be happy in this lovely family home which is approx. 11 km from the Adelaide CBD, close to schools, shops, and public transport.
