Looking for a spacious place to store your toys? Look no further than 34 Ashley Street, is a stunning home boasting 2801 sqm of space. This beautifully constructed house features solid brick accent walls and offers ample room for your family's needs. Step inside, and you'll instantly feel the quality craftsmanship that went into building this home. It exudes the warmth of a much-loved family residence, there are four bedrooms plus a study, an ensuite in the main bedroom, and convenient walk-through robes. The rest of the house enjoys built in robes and a separate bathroom. The kitchen is a standout, with a lovely timber design, a gas cooktop, electric cooking, a dishwasher, ample cupboard space and delightful views over the garden. The open plan dining and formal lounge area boasts a solid fuel heater, a striking feature brick wall, and a reverse cycle air conditioner for comfort. The home is strategically oriented to the North and sports a charming ranch-style design with verandas that wrap around, offering garden views from every room. Outside, the property boasts established gardens, an inviting inground swimming pool and a BBQ area for outdoor entertaining. The practicality continues with a spacious brick double garage equipped with remote doors, a double carport ideal for trailers or boats, and an expansive 8m x 15m workshop complete with a concrete floor and power supply. Location-wise, this home is only a short walk from the shopping centre, the waterfront, and boat ramps. It's a perfect blend of space, quality, and convenience.
